Author's Preface (Khutbat al-Hajah & Opening)

Indeed, all praise belongs to Allah; we praise Him, seek His aid, and ask His forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allah from the evils of our souls and the consequences of our deeds. Whomever Allah guides, none can misguide; and whomever He allows to stray, none can guide. I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah alone without partner, and I bear witness that Muhammad ﷺ is His servant and final Messenger, sent with guidance and the true religion.

Following this sacred prophetic guidance, I dedicated myself to compiling, editing, and verifying this unified compendium: '1001 Authentic Hadith: The Definitive Thematic Compendium of Strictly Authentic Prophetic Traditions'.

My objective in presenting this work is to place into the hands of every Muslim household, student of sacred knowledge, and family worldwide an accessible, authenticated treasury of 1,001 strictly authentic prophetic traditions organized into comprehensive thematic books covering all facets of creed, worship, ethics, family, and society.

I commenced the research and editorial verification on Tuesday, 2 Ramadan 1445 AH (12 March 2024), praying that Allah the Exalted accepts this effort purely for His sake.

Preliminary Discourse & Scholarly Methodology

I strictly adhered to an exacting scholarly methodology based upon the following principles:

1. Strict Authenticity Standard: Inclusion of only authenticated (Sahih and established Hasan) traditions from the foremost canonical works (Bukhari, Muslim, Abu Dawud, Tirmidhi, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah, Muwatta Malik, and Musnad Ahmad).
2. Comprehensive Thematic Taxonomy: Divided into 20 thematic chapters of exactly 50 hadiths each, inaugurated by the Intention Prologue (#0001), achieving the complete count of 1001 Hadiths.
3. Full Diacritics (Tashkeel): Complete vocalization of every Arabic text to ensure correct reading and sound memorization.
4. Verified Canonical Referencing (Takhrij): Documenting sources and standard international numbering via Maktaba Shamela.
5. Extraction of Practical Lessons: Deriving core theological, legal, and character-building benefits after every narration.
6. Faithful English Translation: Crafting a precise, scholarly translation for readers worldwide.

Actions are Judged Only by Intentions

Sahih

I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: 'Actions are judged only by intentions, and every person will have only that which he intended. So whoever emigrated for the sake of Allah and His Messenger, his emigration is for Allah and His Messenger; and whoever emigrated for worldly benefit to attain or a woman to marry, his emigration is for that for which he emigrated.'

Hadith #0002

The Hadith of Gabriel on Islam, Iman, and Ihsan

Sahih

Umar ibn al-Khattab (RA) narrated: One day while we were sitting with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, there appeared before us a man whose clothes were exceedingly white and whose hair was exceedingly black; no signs of travel were visible upon him and none of us knew him. He sat down before the Prophet ﷺ, resting his knees against his and placing his hands on his thighs, saying: "O Muhammad, tell me about Islam." The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied: "Islam is to testify that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, to establish the prayer, to give the Zakah, to fast Ramadan, and to perform the pilgrimage to the House if you are able." The man said: "You have spoken the truth." We were astonished that he asked and then confirmed it. He then asked: "Tell me about Iman (Faith)." The Prophet replied: "That you believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His messengers, the Last Day, and that you believe in Divine Destiny, both its good and its evil." He said: "You have spoken the truth. Tell me about Ihsan (Excellence)." The Prophet replied: "That you worship Allah as though you see Him; and if you cannot see Him, know that He surely sees you." He said: "Tell me about the Hour." The Prophet said: "The one questioned about it knows no more than the questioner." He said: "Then tell me about its signs." The Prophet said: "That the slave woman will give birth to her mistress, and that you will see barefoot, naked, destitute shepherds competing in constructing lofty buildings." Then the man departed, and I remained for a while. Then the Prophet ﷺ said to me: "O Umar, do you know who the questioner was?" I replied: "Allah and His Messenger know best." He said: "Indeed, it was Gabriel who came to teach you your religion."

Then Allah sends an angel who is commanded with four words: he is told to write down his deeds, his provision, his lifespan, and whether he will be wretched or blessed. Then the soul is breathed into him. By Allah, other than Whom there is no deity worthy of worship, one of you may perform the deeds of the people of Paradise until there is only an arm's length between him and it, then what is written overtakes him, and he does the deeds of the people of the Fire and enters it. And one of you may perform the deeds of the people of the Fire until there is only an arm's length between him and it, then what is written overtakes him, and he does the deeds of the people of Paradise and enters it."

When he confesses all his sins and sees within himself that he is ruined, Allah will say: 'I concealed them for you in the world, and I forgive them for you this Day!' Then he is given the book of his good deeds. But as for the disbelievers and hypocrites, the witnesses will declare: {These are those who lied against their Lord. Unquestionably, the curse of Allah is upon the wrongdoers} [Hud: 18]."

None will dare speak on that day except the Messengers, and the prayer of the Messengers on that day will be: 'O Allah, save, save!' On the Bridge will be giant iron hooks like the thorns of As-Sa'dan. Have you seen the thorns of As-Sa'dan?" They said: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Indeed, they are like the thorns of As-Sa'dan except that none knows the sheer immensity of their size except Allah. They will snatch people according to their deeds: among them will be those ruined and plunged into Hellfire by their actions, and among them those lacerated and torn who then emerge safely, until when Allah completes judgment between the servants, He commands the angels to bring forth from the Fire anyone who testified sincerely that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah."
